

GRAMMAR

PHRASAL VERB

1. The fire fighters were called out to save the people from the burning building.
2. The match was called off due to bad weather.
3. The floods in the Philippines call for immediate action.
4. John called in last Saturday to have lunch with us.
5. The doctor called on my grandmother to check if she was OK.

Call – called – called – звать

Visit

Зайти

Call IN

Cancel

Отменить

Call OFF

Visit formally

Наносить
официальный
визит

Call
ON

Ask to come to somebody's
rescue

Просить о
помощи;
вызывать
службу

Call
OUT

Need

Нуждаться;
звать;
требовать

Call FOR

GRAMMAR

WORDS OFTEN CONFUSED

RUBBISH

мусор, бытовые отходы

LITTER

мусор, оставленный в
неположенном месте

WASTE

Отходы производства

The factory produces tonnes of dangerous waste every month.

INACTIVE

бездействующий

EXTINCT

вымерший

DISSAPEARED

пропавший,
исчезнувший из виду

The dodo became extinct in 1681.

FOG

туман

FUMES

ВЫХЛОПНОЙ газ

SMOKE

дым

I'm tired of breathing car exhaust fumes every time I walk around the city.

LOSE

терять

MISS

пропускать, скучать

WASTE

напрасно тратить

Don't waste your time trying to make her change her mind.

TEAM

команда, выполняющая
совместную задачу

CREW

экипаж (судна, самолета и т.д.)

STAFF

персонал

The members of the rescue team pulled the man out of the collapsed building.

GRAMMAR

DEPENDENT PREPOSITIONS

1. Tigers cannot be kept as pets. They are wild by nature.
2. All the avalanche victims are out of danger.
3. The 1906 earthquake left San Francisco in ruins.
4. What on earth has happened here?
5. When the old man saw his house in flames, he fainted.

Be wild by nature – дикий от природы

BY

Be wild ... nature

Be out of danger – в безопасности

OUT

Be ... of danger

Leave in ruins – оставить в руинах

IN

Leave ... ruins

What on earth – в конце концов

ON

What ... earth

In flames – охваченный пламенем

IN

... flames